

Erratum: Academician Kai-Xian Chen Talks about the Development of Traditional Chinese Medicine and Global Medicine

The article titled “Academician Kai-Xian Chen Talks about the Development of Traditional Chinese Medicine and Global Medicine”, published on pages 1-11, Volume 6, Issue 1, of World Journal of Traditional Chinese Medicine,^[1] the article title is incorrectly written. The correct title of the article should read as: “Perspective on the Development of Traditional Chinese Medicine and World Medicine”.

The article type is “Conference Report” and not “Review Article”.

There are some multiple corrections on page 1:

2nd-3rd line: Under Abstract section the correct sentence is “professor Chen Kai-Xian, from Shanghai University of Traditional Chinese Medicine, delivered a comprehensive lecture on the development of traditional Chinese medicine (TCM) and world medicine. The lecture deeply elaborated on five aspects:” instead of “Academician Chen Kai-Xian, from Shanghai University of Traditional Chinese Medicine, made a wonderful report on the development of traditional Chinese medicine (TCM) and global medicine. The report deeply elaborated on five aspects:”.

8th-10th line: Under section Introduction, the correct statement should read as “Medicine, followed the spirit of Central Committee and delivered a wonderful theme lecture on the development of traditional Chinese medicine (TCM) and world medicine. The lecture deeply elaborated on five aspects:” instead of “Medicine, followed the spirit of Central Committee and made a wonderful theme report on the development of traditional Chinese medicine (TCM) and world medicine. The report deeply elaborated on five aspects:”.

Under Section “Characteristics and Advantages of Traditional Chinese Medicine” the term “Academician Chen Kai-Xian is replaced by “It was”.

The “How to cite this article” section should read correctly as:
