

The 3rd International Symposium on Liver Diseases with Chinese Integrative Medicine (3rd ISLD)

Welcoming Address

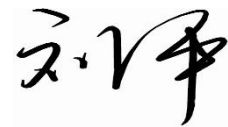

Distinguished experts, committees, colleagues:

The 2016 Annual Conference of the Committee of Liver Disease of Chinese Association of Integrative Medicine — the 3rd International Symposium on Liver Diseases with Chinese Integrative Medicine will be held from October 28th to 29th, 2016 in Shanghai. We are sincerely looking forward to welcoming you in Shanghai.

The Committee of Liver Disease of Chinese Association of Integrative Medicine is among the highest level in the field of Chinese integrative medicine that was established in 1986. It promotes scientific research and clinical academic exchanges along with the clinical workers and medical researchers in a wide range of fields including Chinese medicine, Western medicine and Chinese integrative medicine. The committee has successively held National Conference on Hepatic Diseases of Chinese Integrative Medicine for 24 times and International Symposium on Liver Diseases with Chinese Integrative Medicine in Shanghai at 2005 and 2010.

The theme of the conference is "Liver Fibrosis and Liver Cancer." It will provide an opportunity for exchanging the progress of prevention and clinical research experience of common chronic liver disease (eg, chronic viral hepatitis, liver fibrosis and cirrhosis, liver cancer, fatty liver disease, alcoholic liver disease, liver disease and nutrition and intestinal) with Chinese integrative medicine being the focus of this conference. We will invite renowned experts all over the world to give special reports.

Let us gather in Shanghai at this golden autumn to attend the 3rd International Symposium on Liver Diseases with Chinese Integrative Medicine, to learn and make progress mutually, to promote the development of Chinese integrative medicine of liver disease and to contribute to human health. We are sincerely looking forward to your participation in this academic exchange event!
